RABBI'S MESSAGE

(Reprinted from CBJ's 100th Anniversary Tribute Book)

When I arrived in Plymouth for my interview with the leaders of CBJ, in the spring of 1973, Jack Minsky, of blessed memory, then president of the Congregation, took me under his wing. Knowing that my experience was mostly with big-city synagogues, Jack said that CBJ didn't have many of the advantages that I had been used to; and he said: "We have something more important. We have good people here. I think you'll like it here." From that day to this, Jack was right. It has been an honor for me to be, with you, a vital part of Congregation Beth Jacob. Thank you for supporting Jack's dream, and mine, and Sheila Finer's, and the dream of our Founders and of our members and friends representing CBJ's first hundred years: To be a voice for living Judaism in our Towns; to be a community of Jewish learning; to stand for and teach Jewish values; to instill knowledge, pride, and confidence in our children; and to celebrate the promise of our new century.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 100th Anniversary celebratory weekend was a huge success and I want to share the speech I gave during the Saturday morning Shabbat service. I think it says it all!

Whoever said, "you can't go home again" didn't know about Congregation Beth Jacob!

I watched people approach the synagogue this morning and look around in awe at how much things have remained the same here. They saw the familiar and welcoming sanctuary where they attended weekly Shabbat services, chanted their Haftorah as they became a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, stood under the Chuppah to be married and brought their newborn babies to be named. They lit Chanukah candles here, shared Simchas here, sang songs here and even napped at Shabbat services here ~ whether they were 8 or 80.

The founding families had a vision and built the synagogue to their specifications. The orthodox synagogue with its bimah in the center, the balcony for the women and children above and the mikvah in our basement have evolved into what you see today as we changed affiliation from the Orthodox to the Reform movement and changed with the times.

The revitalization in the 1960s was the vision of the leaders at that time. The balcony was closed by the fire department due to new fire codes after the Coconut Grove fire in Boston, but, the stained glass windows, especially the one I face today remain the same. The bimah was moved to its current location and the mikvah covered over. We have continued to cherish the building, but gave way to more creature comforts. How many of you sat for years on the hard benches and complained? The Minsky family provided us with soft cushions for which we continue to thank them today. The paint colors and carpeting have changed to keep things fresh and new. But, the torah covers still represent the families that came before us and will continue to for generations to come. Our most recent change was updating the social hall downstairs which you will see after the service. It's bright and fresh, but will still evoke memories of Hebrew school classes, Sisterhood meetings, Board meetings and even Bar and Bar Mitzvah receptions.

We don't have fancy seats or air conditioning, but our current leaders understand the need to keep many things as is because we're in Plymouth and a showy building with all new accoutrements just wouldn't be Plymouth. Please don't make your next visit so far in the future and bring your children and friends and show them YOUR Congregation Beth Jacob with pride!

And, as much as the world has changed around us, all of you can always come back here to visit and know that "you CAN come home again!"

Welcome home!
Sheila Finer

THANK YOU

We thank members Bob and Melody Dewey for donating and arranging the beautiful flower table centerpieces for our 100th anniversary celebrations.

Please reciprocate by visiting their Sachem Hawk Farm at 178 Fuller Street in Middleboro and enjoy the flowers, organically grown vegetables, free-range eggs, homemade pies and more.

"DARIA DAYS" CELEBRATED AT SACHEM HAWK FARM
Melody and Bob Dewey, members of CBJ since their marriage seven years ago, have formally dedicated a portion of their garden and a new walkway in memory of their friend -- and Melody's colleague at Carver High School -- Daria Cingolani Amaral. The dedication opens their garden, located at their home, in Middleborough, as a place of refuge and healing to cancer patients from Jordan Hospital. In attendance were representatives of Jordan Hospital and Cranberry Hospice, members of Daria's family, and many friends. Rabbi Silverman took part in the ceremony by placing a mezuzah upon the gatepost in front of the walkway and explaining its significance to the gathering. CBJ President Sheila Finer was specially mentioned in the program for helping to make the dedication a reality. All honor to Melody and Bob for their inspiring labor of love!

The memory of their friend Daria will surely abide as a blessing.

Brotherhood

Brotherhood needs a president – please contact Arnold Gladstein if you are interested.

We are enthusiastic, spirited and excited. We plan to become an important part of Congregation Beth Jacob. It is the goal of the Brotherhood to take an active part of our community. We plan to raise money to provide scholarship support for our religious school students in need of financial help.

We will be having 3 or 4 more breakfast or dinner meetings in the next 8 or 9 months. We plan to continue to go bowling on the first Tuesday of the month. We hope to schedule one or two fundraising events to help achieve our goal.

Please join us and help support our needy students. We have 3 levels of membership:
Supporting Member - $18
Torah Member - $36
Mitzvah Member - $54

Sisterhood

WE NEED YOU!!!

Our Sisterhood provides financial support and labor for many of CBJ's activities and causes and needs your help. Even if you're unable to attend meetings, your membership gives us the funding needed to subsidize these events. If your children are grown, you can remember the enjoyable holiday parties, which still continue to this day for our younger generation. What would Chanukah be without dreidels and candy? What would Simchat Torah be without our pizza party after decorating the Sukkah? What would a Purim carnival be without hamantashen? We also sponsor a Purim Carnival game. These are just a few of the many events Sisterhood supports. We also stock the kitchen in both buildings with all of the supplies needed. This year Sisterhood is even underwriting some of our 100th Anniversary celebrations. If it happens at CBJ, Sisterhood is there!

Please take a moment and fill out the membership form and allow Sisterhood to continue its mission. Dues are only $25 annually, and help support the CBJ community.

We need volunteers to provide an Oneg Shabbat. Contact Barbara Aharoni: ahaba@juno.com or phone 508-747-0805 for open dates. It makes Shabbat more joyful to be able to socialize afterward, and helps us to give a warm welcome to visitors.

Our KIVA loans have been almost completely repaid at this time, so we will soon be choosing another group of women to whom we will make micro-loans.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

As Pam Koplan and I step down as co-chairs of the Education Committee, we want to thank our teachers, our students, their parents, and the Education Committee. The Education Committee and our teachers have worked very hard for the last two years to give our children an informative and enjoyable Jewish education. We hope our efforts were successful.

We wish the new Education Committee chairperson, as well as the Education Committee and the new Coordinator of Beit Sefer a fruitful and rewarding year.

THE RESNICK FAMILY EDUCATION FUND

Four years ago, in February 2005, thanks to the generosity of many members of the Resnick Family, the Resnick Family Education Fund was established here, at Congregation Beth Jacob. A few years earlier, Resnick descendants, representing one of CBJ's Founding Families had a reunion in Plymouth to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of their family's settlement here. The Fund they provided in 2005 was to be used for the benefit of worthy students, based on need, enrolled in our Religious School. We acknowledge these recent contributions:

Gifts in any amount are always welcome.
Please make your check payable to CBJ,

Yahrzeit and Condolences

Yahrzeit Observance begins the evening before the date shown

"May the Memory of each one abide as a Blessing"

Notes on Yahrzeit observance: In the Jewish calendar, this year is a leap year. As a result, yahrzeits will be observed later in the season than they were last year.

Some customs associated with Yahrzeit observance are: lighting a memorial candle at home in the evening at the beginning of the Yahrzeit period; saying Kaddish during a Shabbat service close to the Yahrzeit; donating to a charity or one of CBJ's special funds in memory of the one whose Yahrzeit is being observed.
