A MESSAGE FROM RABBI SILVERMAN...

At our Friday night service on February 24, I spoke about that week's news, which involved the unintentional burning of volumes of the Quran (Koran) by the American military at a base in Afghanistan. The event was acknowledged by the officer in charge with great apologies and regrets. So far, what had happened was not a tragedy. There were serious moral implications to the event; and it was appropriate that a serious measure of contrition was expressed. A lesson had been learned. Tragedy ensued, however, when certain individuals decided that this event was to be taken as an insult and an attack on Islam; and as a consequence, these individuals spread the word and took on a "mob mentality," rioting, committing many acts of civil disorder, and committing acts of murder. They acted as if the burning of holy books was a worse offense than killing a human being. While this scale of values is a complicated one to discuss, it is clear, in Judaism, that the taking of a person's life is a far worse ethical violation than the accidental burning of books, no matter how holy, precious, and loved those books may be. In my remarks, I quoted a passage from the writings of Amos Oz, a renowned Israeli author. That passage generated some discussion; and for everyone's information, and possibly for the sake of further discussion, I wanted to reproduce that text here, in context.

From an interview with Amos Oz, in "The Seventh Day: Soldiers' Talk about the Six Day War."

One of the men from Hulda [Amos Oz's kibbutz] died during the war, about 24 or 25 [years old]. When I came back from the war, I went to see his parents. A few of the kibbutz members were there, and the mother was crying. The father was biting his lips to hold back his tears. One of the older members tried to comfort them, "Look, after all, we've liberated Jerusalem," he said, "he didn't die for nothing." The mother burst into sobs and said, "The whole of the Western Wall isn't worth Micha's little finger as far as I'm concerned...." If what you're telling me is that we fought for our existence, then I'd say it was worth Micha Hyman's little finger. But if you tell me that it was the Wall we fought for, then it wasn't worth his little finger. Say what you like -- I do have a feeling for those stones -- but they're only stones. And Micha was a person. A man. If dynamiting the Wall would bring Micha back to life, then I'd say: "Blow it up!" Food for thought. -- With best wishes,

Rabbi Lawrence Silverman

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

As many of you know, CBJ is currently facing a number of unexpected expenses including a major roof repair to the Community Center and flooding in its basement. In addition, our regular expenses for heat, salaries, insurance, etc. are not being fully met by dues collections alone.

In response to these needs, we are initiating a major fundraising drive! Through the generosity of an anonymous donor, we have secured a pledge of $5000 to create a matching fund. That means that for every dollar donated during this campaign, CBJ will receive two dollars. If the entire challenge were met, then CBJ would raise $10,000 for the General Fund.

Also as part of this campaign, we are renewing our efforts to sell Tree-of-Life leaves. I'm sure you're aware of the lovely brass Tree-of-Life wall that adorns the main foyer of our Community Center. Individual leaves cost $318 and may be engraved with any name, honor or life cycle event the donor wishes (with the one exception of memorials). Best of all, any purchase of a leaf within this program will count toward the matching fund discussed above. So, for $318 you would receive the gift of a leaf on our Tree-of-Life and really be donating the sum of $636 to CBJ.

The CBJ 2012 Matching Fund Campaign will end on June 10th. Be assured that every penny raised during this campaign will go directly to the Congregation Beth Jacob General Fund. All donations are tax deductible.

Please make checks payable to Congregation Beth Jacob and add "2012 Matching Fund Campaign" on the memo line. Send all donations to Congregation Beth Jacob, P.O. Box 3284, Plymouth, MA 02361. Please remember to include whom the donation is from and, if you are purchasing a leaf on the Tree-of-Life, please include all the information you wish to have inscribed. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me at fsarke@gmail.com.

Thank you,

Fred Sarke, President

SISTERHOOD NEWS

There will be no regular meeting in April. Our 68th annual Donor Luncheon will be held on Sunday, April, 29th at Carmela's Restaurant in Kingston. Cash Bar begins at 12:30 p.m. and lunch with raffle begins at 1:15 p.m. This is our major fundraiser for the year! It is open to men and non-members of Sisterhood as well. A mailing will go out mid-March to all Sisterhood members as well as the CBJ membership at large. Early Bird price of $35.00 if you send in your check by April 9th to Cindy Teles, 31 Birch Avenue, Plymouth 02360.

Hineni (a group of Sisterhood and Brotherhood members) will sponsor a week-day afternoon tea for members of the CBJ community. It will give members a chance to get out and smooze with old friends and neighbors. Rides will be provided. More information will follow.

May 19th will bring a cooking class for those who want to expand their repertoire beyond chocolate chip cookies and Duncan Hines Brownies. Again, details will follow.

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

On February 8th, Brotherhood and CBJ reached an impressive milestone. It has been a bit over a year and a half that CBJ Brotherhood decided (while looking for other charities to sponsor) to stay in our own back yard and (and taking into consideration, the deteriorating state of our economy at that time) try any way we can, to help support the Greater Plymouth Food Warehouse. To that end and with the continued support of the CBJ community we have now totaled over ONE TON of non perishable food items donated to the Greater Plymouth Food Warehouse. No small feat considering the size of our congregation. We applaud you all in our efforts to reach this milestone. However, the need is still great. There are empty shelves to stock...and we are once again asking you to help our fellow neighbors in desperate need of that help. We ask that whenever you go shopping to consider those less fortunate than you, and buy one or two non perishable food items to donate to the Food Warehouse. We have baskets available in both the Community Center and the Synagogue.

Brotherhood continues with its distinguished Breakfast Series, which has become known as being somewhat more distinguished than Brotherhood itself. Last Breakfast (on January 15th) we had an extraordinary discussion with the noted author, actress and essayist (and wife of actor Chris Cooper): Marianne Leone Cooper. She read excerpts from her book (Knowing Jesse). She told a story of the love, anger, frustration, laughter and joy that their family experienced while living with a physically challenged son. It was heartbreaking and exhilarating, and unfortunately most of you missed it! However, the next sumptuous Brotherhood Breakfast is scheduled for Sunday, March 25th. The speaker will be Deputy Sheriff, Lisa Budge Johnson. She will talk about "Charitable Giving" and How to be an Informed Donor. If you missed the last talk she gave on "Identity Theft", you missed an informative, entertaining and intriguing presentation. If you miss this Breakfast, you risk being stupid about another subject you know little or nothing about. You'll also miss the incredible "FREE" Breakfast that Brotherhood dishes out to its' brethren in Brotherhood and Sisterhood. It's an awful lot we give you for very, very little. In addition, Deputy Sheriff Johnson carries a gun (I love that in a woman).

Brotherhood has continued to try and involve as many of you as possible by attempts at an Investment Club, a Book Club, Bowling (you could call it that), movie night (our attempt at family harmony by seeing movies that our wives wouldn't see on a bet and having 2 for 1 pizza) and an ongoing effort to involve adults, adults and children, and any other assortment you care to think of, to participate and enjoy inspiring conversation while laughing incessantly. Brotherhood now has 36 members of questionable character and continues to hold OPEN ENROLLMENT (like in KinderCare) for others who can take the strain of dealing with a somewhat less than serious membership while working on a very serious agenda. That agenda is to support CBJ in any way we can. Almost ALL of our assets are donated back to CBJ and certainly does NOT end up in an anonymous bank account in the Cayman Islands. So SUCK IT UP AND JOIN!!! Your $18 donation (membership dues) can be made out to CBJ Brotherhood and sent to our human abacus: Seth Teles.

Dan Hirschhorn

PARTY? NFTY? WHAT ARE THEY REALLY?

PARTY is the acronym for CBJ's temple youth group, Plymouth AREa Temple Youth. NFTY is the acronym for The North American Federation of Temple Youth. PARTY is a member of the NFTY North East region, and is one of 750 TYG's in 19 NFTY regions throughout the US and Canada.

NFTY is the Reform Jewish religious movement that fosters leadership at the national, regional, and congregational level. It is comprised of more than 500 local synagogue youth groups, and is a Reform Jewish Community for high school students. NFTYites forge and build friendships, lifelong Reform Jewish identities, and leadership skills through community building, worship, social action, and experimental youth-led educational programming. NFTY was founded in 1939 as the youth arm of the URJ. It was created at the urging of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods in order to provide an outlet for young people to engage in the life of their synagogues. Now in its 6th decade, NFTY has touched the lives of literally thousands of young American Jews through the programs it runs and the relationships it fosters.

PARTY welcomes Reform Jewish teens from Plymouth and surrounding communities. PARTY holds local social events for teens, and participates in many regional NFTY-NE events. If you know of a Jewish teen who would enjoy building a stronger connection to Judaism, experiencing a profound educational experience and meaningful relationships, then PARTY and NFTY might be just what they need! For more information, email Christine Burke, PARTY Advisor, at party@cbjplymouth.org.

PARTY NEWS

As many of you know, Erica Burke, PARTY's President, is in Israel at the NFTY-EIE High School in Israel Spring 2012 program. She has been posting blogs about her experiences online at wordpress.com and you are invited to read them at ericajayeburke.wordpress.com. Excerpts from her blog posts follow.

Posted on January 27: "Gooooood morning friends. Erica here. It is currently 9:30 am in Israel, and about 2:30 am back at home. I had probably the deepest sleep of my life last night after being awake and travelling for about 24 hours. I woke up this morning and forgot where I was...scary. But as soon as I remembered, I smiled and was overjoyed to be here."

Posted on January 29: "This morning at 7:45 am we were off on our way to a craazy archaeological dig. This morning was the first time I actually felt like I was in Israel...it's about time. The views were absolutely amazing and walking on the hills was just so enjoyable. We crawled through ancient caves and learned all about how the soldiers made them and hid inside."

Posted on February 7th: "Today, we went to the Old City in Jerusalem and it was just amazing. We got to see ruins of what is thought to be King David's palace, we went to the Kotel (a.k.a the Western/Wailing Wall), which was very emotional and powerful, and we got to hear the Muslim call to prayer over an intercom through the whole city during the middle of our lesson...it was kind of scary...It's really hard for me to try and recall or describe certain things I learn or saw because there is just SO. MUCH...And the views in this country...oh, man. It's just amazing. I never want to leave this place, it honestly already feels like home and feels like I've been here forever even though it's barely been two weeks."

Posted on March 4th: "What an experience. Staying at a youth hostel overlooking the one and only Dead Sea was just beautiful... I can't think of any other way to explain it besides literally being able to just lean back, and float right on top of the water. You just felt so light and wonderful and I never wanted to get out...Also, the view from the main square of the hostel outside was beautiful. It literally looked fake, with the Dead Sea's beautiful shades of blue and the faint silhouette of the mountains beyond it – Israel's beauty at it's finest. I am constantly reminded of how lucky I am to be here, to be seeing such a beautiful country with so much history and significance...The last night we spent in Eilat was by far the most fun I've had in a very long time and definitely the best night in Israel so far. I'm not sure how to describe it in a way that can make you understand...It was just pure happiness bubbling out of everyone, we were done with Gadna, going home to Tzuba, eating, shopping, and having a blast. I was so high on life and never wanted to come down!"

Erica will be returning to Plymouth on May 29th, and I'm sure will have many more stories to share! And remember, if you want to check out her online blog, simply go to ericajayeburke.wordpress.com.

LIMUD TORAH/TORAH STUDY GROUP

We are continuing our new study of the Book of Genesis; and we shall also be looking at how the ancient rabbis revealed themselves in the stories they told to supplement Biblical narratives. While knowledge of Hebrew can be helpful, we study our texts in English. Please feel free to join us any week or each and every week. Our study sessions are on most Mondays from 8:30 to 10:00 a.m., at the Synagogue. We are planning to meet every Monday morning in the month of March.

NIGHTS OF HOSPITALITY FOR

THE HOMELESS

The interfaith homeless shelter returns to our Community Center for the last week in March (Sunday evening, March 25 through Sunday morning, April 1). (Please note that some subsidies are available for those who provide meals!). To volunteer, please call Shellie Souza (9:00 am to 3:30 pm) at 508-746-3026. ### Notes on Yahrzeit observance:

In the Jewish calendar, this year is a leap-year. As a result, yahrzeits will be observed later in the season than they were last year. Some customs associated with Yahrzeit observance are: lighting a memorial candle at home in the evening at the beginning of the Yahrzeit period; saying Kaddish during a Shabbat service close to the Yahrzeit; donating to a charity or one of CBJ's special funds in memory of the one whose Yahrzeit is being observed.

"May the Memory of each one abide as a Blessing"

THE CONGREGATION OFFERS HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES TO:

Sherri Sore, on the death of her mother, ELAINE BROWN

Lois Klasky, on the death of her Sister, ELIZABETH VAN WEST SOKOLOW

Andrew, Amanda, and Benjamin Hunter on the recent death of their Father, DAN HUNTER

Members, Guests and Friends of CBJ:

I am happy to remind you of a program that was recently started here at Congregation Beth Jacob. We have instituted a new method to inform fellow Jews: both members and their families and friends of CBJ, of the annual yahrzeit dates of their loved ones. Once you have supplied the names and dates (either Hebrew or English) of those whom you wish to remember, you will receive notification approximately three weeks in advance of the yahrzeit date. There is no charge for this service. We feel that it's important to supply this service to all interested Jews.

I realize that our members have furnished this information when they joined CBJ. We ask those of you who have not done so to supply this information again so we can be sure our records are up-to-date and accurate.

This program is separate from your listings in our annual Yizkor Book of Remembrance.

Please send this information to:

SOCIAL ACTION CORNER

 My name is Melissa Kirby and I am starting to prepare for my Bat Mitzvah to be held May, 2013. My  cousin was stationed overseas on the front line for a year. During that year my dad, mom, sister and I  sent a box a month to him. I would like to continue that during my Bat Mitzvah year starting May, 2012  sending one box a month to a service man or woman overseas. Does anyone in the Congregation have a  loved one overseas in the armed services? If so, please e-mail to my mom, Robin Kirby at  robink12@verizon.net the details as far as the correct name and address to send a box overseas. If there  are too many folks I will need to put all the names in a hat and pull one per month for a total of 13 boxes  to be sent.

 If anyone would like to help with donations for the boxes, there will be a box at the Community Center  labeled "Donations for Service Men and Women." Items needed are things like razors, individual pack-  aged fun food, fun little trinkets, baby wipes (the small travel containers are best), and best of all, hand-  made cards!

 Thank you for your support!

GREATER PLYMOUTH FOOD WAREHOUSE
 We have reached a goal for the Greater Plymouth Food Warehouse drive. We started this effort Rosh Hashanah 5771 and through your efforts, caring & acts of mitzvah a total of 2096 pounds of non perishable food has been donated in the name of Congregation Beth Jacob. The need is constant & never ceasing. Please consider the needy when you do your grocery shopping. Each time you come to our buildings deliver your donations in the buckets provided. Visit www.sscac.org or call to volunteer @ 508-747-7575!

Thank you for your considerations...

Dan Hirschhorn & Carl Finer, CBJ Brotherhood

HINENI
 The Brotherhood and Sisterhood of Congregation Beth Jacob announce the initiation of a new program (Hineni) to provide one-time or short-term services to congregants. To this end, a number of congregants have volunteered to provide rides, meals, and other similar assistance as needed and requested.

For examples, rides to Temple for services, programs, and meetings as well as to appointments can be arranged. Meals will also be provided on a limited basis.

All congregant requests will be maintained in the strictest of confidentiality. Any requests for assistance should be directed to the program coordinators, Steve and Suzanne Goldberg @ 508-833-8896, or Rabbi Silverman @ 508-746-1575. Volunteers are always welcomed and needed.

 SOCIAL ACTION AT CBJ

 Christine Burke has recently assumed the position of Social Action Committee Chairperson, and is looking forward to revitalizing social action programming at CBJ.

 Temple members of ALL AGES are invited to join the Social Action Committee, and teens in PARTY and Jr.

 PARTY are particularly encouraged to get involved. We are commanded by both our faith and history to take steps to better our world, and together we can accomplish incredible things...so stay tuned!
