PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Dear CBJ Congregants,

In this issue of The Tent I would like to share with you some excerpts from my remarks on Rosh Hashanah...

Rosh Hashanah...Head of the Year...the New Year...“Happy New Year” we say to one another. But an article I read recently by Rabbi Benjamin Blech, a Professor of Talmud at Yeshiva University in New York, pointed out that saying “Happy” New Year is not the most accurate. “L’Shana Tova” literally means “Good Year” – not “Happy Year.” But what’s the difference?

Rabbi Benjamin points out that a happy life and a meaningful life do overlap in many ways, but ultimately are very different. To pursue happiness without meaning is somehow shallow and self-absorbed, isn’t it? If you get what you want, you are happy...but shouldn’t there be more? Kathleen Vohs, an author of a study published in “The Journal of Positive Psychology” says, “Happy people get joy from receiving, while people leading meaningful lives, get joy from giving to others.” So in other words, happiness is about giving the self what it wants, but pursuing a meaningful life is about being a giver – it’s about recognizing the superiority of meaning over the joy of the moment. .

Rabbi Benjamin goes on to point out that somehow Jews have always understood this intuitively. “Happy is good,” he says, “but good is better.” Our lives are good when they fulfill what they are meant to. And isn’t happiness derived from living a meaningful life? And isn’t it also true that when we aren’t pursuing happiness...when we are willing to set our happiness aside and give to others, isn’t that when we sometimes find the greatest joy?

I encourage you to consider how you can give of yourself in order to increase the meaningfulness of your life. One way to do this is to give of yourself to your synagogue. We need volunteers...we need involved Beit Sefer parents...we need board members...a vice president...next year we will need a treasurer. So please...won’t you consider the goodness, the joy and the meaningfulness of giving back to our temple community?

I sincerely wish each and every one of you a sweet, happy, and GOOD new year! L’Shanah Tova!

Shalom,

Christine Burke
President, CBJ

Dear Friends,

Let me, once again, wish you and everyone in our Congregation a good New Year.

Let me also invite you to two special Friday evening programs, which will follow our services for welcoming Shabbat on both occasion. In honor of our New Year 5775, we may ask: What does this counting of our years mean? What does it go back to?

Come and learn! On Friday evening, November 14, following services, I'll be making a presentation entitled, "The Bible, Evolution, and Creationism." Since there will be only a few minutes available for questions and answers, the subject will be continued the following week, November 21. Same format, only this time, after a very brief introduction, we'll be able to devote our attention to Q-and-A. On these two dates our services will be somewhat shorter than usual. Please join us on two special Fridays in November:

November 14 and 21: Services begin at 7:30, followed by "The Bible, Evolution, and Creationism."

-- Rabbi Lawrence

CBJ JOINS OUR NEIGHBORS TO OFFER HOSPITALITY FOR THE HOMELESS

As part of an interfaith effort, sponsored by the Plymouth Area Taskforce for the Homeless and the Interfaith Clergy Association, we have been asked to serve for one week during the coming winter to provide one week of "Nights of Hospitality for the Homeless." We have been offered the meeting-hall in Plymouth's First Baptist Church as the location we can use to provide shelter.

In order to be able to offer a successful program, we need:

- 1) Contributions to the Rabbi's Mitzvah Fund, so that our participation does not have an impact of CBJ's budget;
- 2) Meal-providers for each of our seven nights;
- 3) Two Chaperones per night for each of the seven nights

To volunteer, please call Shellie at 508-747-3026 (she can also answer many of your questions).

Please make contributions payable to "CBJ-Rabbi's Mitzvah Fund," include your dedication instructions, write "Hospitality" in the memo space and send to Rabbi Silverman's attention. Thank you!

BEIT SEFER NEWS

Beit Sefer News

The school year is off and running at Beit Sefer! Once again we have 20 children ranging from pre-school to grade 6. I'm thrilled that last year's teaching staff has returned! It includes Sheila Finer, Ann Maddeford, and Elissa Davis. This year we welcome 2 new students and one returning student. Addie Davis is a pre-kindergartener while Freddie Rosen and Raine Babcock have joined our 4th grade. Two other additions to our program are the new flat screen TV and internet access in the Synagogue. They have enabled us to incorporate technology into our curriculum. This is a fun and motivating way to expose the children to the never-ending resources of the World Wide Web. Thanks to all those involved in making these great teaching tools available to us.

Upcoming Dates:

November 2 nd	Jews in America unit
November 7 th	Simcha Shabbat @ 7:30
November 9 th	Joseph unit
November 16 th	Joseph unit
November 23 rd	Joseph unit
November 30 th	No Beit Sefer - Thanksgiving
December 7 th	Famous Jews unit
December 12 th	Simcha Shabbat @ 7:30
December 14 th	5:00 CBJ Hanukah party - No Beit Sefer *See below
December 21 st	No Beit Sefer - School Vacation
December 28 th	No Beit Sefer - School Vacation
January 4 th	No Beit Sefer - School Vacation

* IMPORTANT - The children of CBJ need your help!

Please be aware that we do not have an active PTO at this time. Our previous PTO members have all "graduated" from Beit Sefer after many years of hard work. We are in need of some parents who are willing to plan the Hanukkah Party, Purim Carnival, and Family Fun Day. (Jeff Isaacson said he would be willing to "consult" with the new PTO as needed.) These special events will not occur without people stepping up to plan them. Contact Christine Burke to get involved.

SISTERHOOD NEWS:

Greetings everyone! Hope you all enjoyed the High Holy Days and are ready for more festivities as the year progresses.

Sisterhood has been busy already and we have a full schedule for the months ahead. Our Torah Study Group with Rabbi Silverman has met several times this Fall, and we have another meeting coming up on Monday, October 27th at 11:00 AM at the Synagogue. Our meetings are arranged in accordance with the Rabbi's schedule. I know that this time does not work for everyone, but if you have a chance to make it to the group sometime, you won't be disappointed - it's educational, enlightening and fun!

The new Walkin' Sisters Group has been putting in some miles as well, having done a number of walks around Plymouth and on the beaches. Weather and schedules permitting, more miles lie ahead so be on the look out for upcoming events!

One of our best events, the Sisterhood Paid Up Supper, will be held on November 4th at 6:30 pm at CBJ. We'll be enjoying a delicious meal and a special presentation by Ronnie Hirschhorn on "Jewish Women - Heroes of the Holocaust". I hope to see you there.

Rounding out 2014 will be the Sisterhood-Brotherhood Annual Hanukkah Party on Tuesday evening, December 9th at CBJ. This is open to members of Sisterhood and Brotherhood, along with their spouses (note: at least one spouse must be a member of either Sisterhood or Brotherhood). Come eat latkes, light the menorah and help celebrate this wonderful time of year!

I'd like to thank everyone who has hosted a Friday evening Oneg Shabbat so far. The ones sponsored by our Congregation members are always the best since they bring a personal touch to the evening! If you haven't hosted an Oneg, I encourage you to please consider it. It's such a nice way to celebrate a Simcha and to share the community spirit of our Congregation. It need not be costly or extravagant, and members of Sisterhood will be on hand to help you. Contact Sue Solomon and secure your special date!

There is much more coming in 2015, including Dinner and Movie Night and the Pound Auction. A new event, our own Antique Roadshow, will be held on Sunday, March 22nd, after Beit Sefer, and of course, we have Passover and the Donor Luncheon in the Spring! All in all, there's food and fun in our future! Please don't hesitate to contact me with ideas, questions or concerns. I look forward to seeing all of you soon!

Marjorie Nydell, Sisterhood President

The Congregation sends a hearty "Mazel Tov" to...

Jay & Rhonda John on the marriage of their daughter Lori to Jerry DeCoste.

Scott & Dara Campanella and Joe & Paula Keller on the birth of their son/grandson Cameron Lucas

"The Memory of the Righteous is a Blessing"

The Congregation offers heartfelt condolences to....

Ellen Goodman & Brad Stone whose mother, Rhody Stone was a long time CBJ member.

Deadline for the January/February TENT is December 8th. Articles and news may be submitted to Robin Kirby at robink12@verizon.net and are accepted earlier than the deadline. Please note that the deadline is just that a deadline. I would like to keep the issues of the TENT coming out the last week of the month prior to the TENT issue ie. November/December should be out the last week of October so congregants that wish to attend upcoming events know of them in advance.

Thank you in advance for your understanding,

Robin Kirby, Editor

GIFT CARDS = MONEY FOR CBJ

In my last message in the eTent I made a case for COMMON UNITY = COMMUNITY. A question arose asking for specifics. On our card supplier web site is listed all the cards available to us and the list can be sorted alphabetically or by category. For example, you want cards @ under $10. or cards in a shopping category. The web site is www.glscrip.com. Listed here are an assortment of stores you can access locally. There are lots of others throughout the nation.

So here we go with a representative selection;

children and teens

774-454-2652

Items not taken are lawn mowers, propane tanks, x-ray machines and diagnostic equipment or furniture.

Electronics are recycled through EPA and ISO certified electronics handlers

Last (but not least)....

Dear Botherhood & Sisterhood Member:

Beth Jacob Brotherhood would like to invite you to an exciting night of FUN & FROLIC to be held at the synagogue. You will be treated to a Bingo Night as well as a Pot Luck dinner of special culinary delights on Sunday, November 9th.

We hope that this will be an evening of welcome social entertainment, such as the community has been clamoring for. An evening of rich interaction with members of our Beth Jacob community. As you know, seating is limited so please respond early. We plan to start with the dinner at 5:00 pm, to be followed by Bingo games. To play, there will be a $5.00 charge per person, which will include three cards. Each additional card will cost $2:00. THERE WILL BE PRIZES AWARDED!!! We will end the evening with dessert and coffee/tea. We would like as many of you as possible to attend.

Please let us know what your favorite entrée, salad or dessert offering (or “all of the above” if you can’t make up your mind) will be. Once again, (as most of you know) seating at the synagogue is limited. So, we must have your R.S.V.P. no later than Monday, November 3rd to Jay John at: 508-866-5494, or at: jayjohn47@verizon.net.

Beth Jacob Brotherhood

Asking for help in our community for those that need it the most...

... as Thanksgiving approaches it is important to take note of those things in our lives that are important that we are grateful for. Some are; health, family and the security of knowing that you don't have to worry about where your next meal is coming from. In this land of plenty we take a lot for granted. And there are those among us who can't afford to take such benign thoughts as "to where their next meal is coming from."

In the past few years, the Brotherhood of CBJ (with your help) has donated 4,000 lbs. of non perishable food-stuffs. That translates to about 6,000 meals. We are again asking your help for the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday. This time we are asking you to donate what ever you are able to afford, cash (or checks payable to CBJ Brotherhood). Multiples of chai would be appropriate. We'll convert that to supermarket gift cards and those cards will then be donated to the Greater Plymouth Food Warehouse.

Your generosity is truly appreciated & a mitzvah. We wish you & yours a truly joyous Thanksgiving.

Checks should be made payable to "CBJ-Rabbi's Mitzvah Fund" and sent to the Rabbi's attention at P.O. Box 3284, Plymouth, MA 02361. Please include your dedication instructions. A note will be sent to the person (s) honored by your gift or to the family of someone in whose memory a contribution is made.

HINENI

The Brotherhood and Sisterhood of Congregation Beth Jacob are continuing (Hineni) to provide one-time or short-term services to congregants. To this end, a number of congregants have volunteered to provide rides, meals, and other similar assistance as needed and requested.

For examples, rides to Temple for services, programs, and meetings as well as to appointments can be arranged. Meals will also be provided on a limited basis.

All congregant requests will be maintained in the strictest of confidentiality. Any requests for assistance should be directed to the program coordinator, Suzanne Goldberg @ 508-833-8896, or Rabbi Silverman @ 508-746-1575. Volunteers are always welcomed and needed.

Notes on Yahrzeit observance:

Some customs associated with Yahrzeit observance are: lighting a memorial candle at home in the evening at the beginning of the Yahrzeit period; saying Kaddish during a Shabbat service close to the Yahrzeit; donating to a charity or one of CBJ's special funds in memory of the one

Members, Guests and Friends of CBJ:

I am happy to remind you of a program that we offer at Congregation Beth Jacob to inform fellow Jews: both members and their families and friends of CBJ, of the annual yahrzeit dates of their loved ones. Once you have supplied the names and dates (either Hebrew or English) of those whom you wish to remember, you will receive notification approximately three weeks in advance of the yahrzeit date. There is no charge for this service. We feel that it's important to supply this service to all interested Jews.

I realize that our members have furnished this information when they joined CBJ. We ask those of you who have not done so to supply this information again so we can be sure our records are up-to-date and accurate. This program is separate from your listings in our annual Yizkor Book of Remembrance.
