Small Congregations' Tish B'av Adult Learning
Program

Rabbi Mills will be teaching in the small congregation's Tisha B'av adult learning program. This program will be a combination of short teaching by Reform Rabbis all over North American and readings and reflections from the Book of Lamentations.

Tisha b'Av is the focused day of loss for our People. It is a day of Lamentations, of Destruction, of sadness and pain. We join together with words of prayer, acts of memory and opportunities for learning and reflection to share the weight of the 9th of Av. Join us, participants and leaders of small URJ congregations on August 2nd at 8pm Eastern as we gather virtually for an observance of this powerful day on our calendar.

This program is free, but registration is required.

It's Not Too Soon to Start Thinking About The High Holy Days! Where Have All the Prayer Books Gone?

If you have borrowed a copy of Mishkan T'filah for our Shabbat and Festivals services and/or the 2-volume set of Mishkan HaNefesh, the prayer books that we use for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, PLEASE RETURN THEM. These books are the property of Congregation Beth Jacob and are not available for home use. They are needed for our in-person services, both for our congregants and guests.

If you would like to have your own copy of these prayer books for your use at home, they are available on Amazon or through the CCAR Press website. Kindle copies, available at the Amazon website, are surprisingly inexpensive (under $10 each.)

Details for how to purchase your own personal copies of these prayer books for use at home for Zoom services are on the next page.

To order a Kindle or hardcopy of Mishkan T'Filah, see the links below.

(<https://www.amazon.com/Mishkan-Tfilah-Complete-Festivals-Transliterated-ebook/dp/B01AWYWZFY>) or through the CCAR website

(<https://www.ccarnet.org/publications/resources-repaginated/>)

To order copies of Mishkan HaNefesh (Volume 1 for Rosh Hashanah and Volume 2 for Yom Kippur), from Amazon, either in hard copy or in the Kindle version, click on this link.

The CCAR Press website will redirect you to the Amazon website if you choose the Kindle version of these prayer books.

Finally, please consider DONATING one or more copies of these prayer books to CBJ in honor of a special event - a wedding, a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, a birthday or anniversary - or in memory of a loved one. Bookplates will be placed into all prayer books that you have donated. You may contact Rabbi Mills for more information (cbjplymouthrabbi@gmail.com.)

Thank you!

GREAT NEWS!

Vote Reform won a commanding victory! Your work has paid off! Our slate received more votes than any of the 22 slates by a wide margin. We got the largest number of votes in the history of the WZC - and we did so by running a fair, honorable campaign and holding up our Reform Jewish values.

We are the largest U.S. voice at the World Zionist Congress. This is a victory for the democratic ideals and Reform Jewish values that we share. This will mean that we will fight for pluralism and democracy; and secure significant funding for Reform causes. Our community showed up and it made a powerful difference.

CBJ On The Move

The search is ongoing for CBJ's future new home - one that is located in our historic town of Plymouth, is fully handicap accessible, offers adequate parking, space to hold social and education events, an inviting environment for our Hebrew School students to meet and learn, a kitchen that is large enough to accommodate congregational dinners, one that affords us the space to grow and flourish. While the search has been frustrating and is taking far longer than we had hoped, we are confident that our goal is achievable. All we need is one - the right one.

Our Co-Presidents, Devon Fernald and Dianne Bluestein, together with Ethan Kusmin, have been investigating new properties as they have come onto the market, as well as options to purchase land on which to construct our new synagogue building.

A promising site has been located and we have hired an engineering firm to assess whether all of the Town-mandated requirements can be met, Updated information is being provided to our congregants at our Annual Meeting on June 29th.

A scenic photograph of a waterfall cascading over mossy rocks. The water is white and frothy as it falls, and the surrounding rocks are covered in green moss. The background is a deep blue sky.

*"It doesn't matter if a million people tell you what you can't do, or if ten million people tell you no.
If you get one yes from God,
that's all you need."*

Brotherhood News

Brotherhood Is Alive and Well!

On the morning of June 22nd, Russell Yale led a group of Brotherhood men on a walking tour of Plymouth. They met at Plymouth Rock, explored the downtown area, ending their excursion with breakfast at Water Street Cafe. Look for future meetings and programs that will be coming in the months to come!

Men: This is YOUR organization. Please join Brotherhood and contribute your ideas for programs for the year ahead. It is not necessary to be a member of CBJ in order to be a member of Brotherhood. See the dues form further on in this newsletter.

Brotherhood Bowling

The 1st and 3rd THURSDAYS of the Month at 3:00 pm at Kingston
Ten Pins
(Please note the change!)

We'll now be bowling the first and third THURSDAYS of every month at 3:00 pm. We bowl 3 strings and pay only the special rate of $4.50/string. You don't need to have any equipment, as bowling shoe rental is available for a small additional fee, and there is a large selection of balls to use. This is a great way to get together with other members of Brotherhood, renew old friendships, and make new ones. You don't have to be good at bowling to participate - all you need is a good sense of humor! Contact Seth Teles at scteles@aol.com or Arnold Gladstein at araglad@verizon.net and let us know if you would like to join us. Is your spouse or significant other welcome? Of course!

Save the date! Thursday, July 10th, 5:30-7:30pm
Tikkun Olam Shalom Fair, sponsored by the FJC (Falmouth Jewish Community) Social Justice Committee

Conversations and information about STEP (Science Training Encouraging Peace), ROZANA (healthcare in the Palestinian Territories and Israel), ALLMEP (Alliance for Middle East Peace), ARAVA Institute for Environmental Studies, Hand in Hand integrated Hebrew-Arabic taught schools K-12, Seeds of Peace summer camp, Givat Haviva International School for students and educators, and Groundwork.

Light Mediterranean snacks will be served.

This event is open to FJC congregants and their invited guests and friends, and our guests, congregants from Cape Cod Synagogue of Hyannis, and Congregation Beth Jacob, of Plymouth.

Please watch for more information to follow, but do mark your calendars for this educational and inspiring event

As we all know, “It takes a village” to make an organization successful. There are many opportunities for congregants to lend their talents to the work that it takes to keep our congregation running smoothly.

Do you enjoy singing? Do you play a musical instrument? A few simple chords played on a guitar or the ethereal sound of a flute can do so much to enhance the beauty of our services. Are you adept with handling computer technology? We need someone in our congregation who is willing to assist with managing Zoom audio and video settings for our Shabbat services and other programs that are being streamed. There are so many different ways that your skills could enhance CBJ!

Please contact our co-Presidents, Devon Fernald and Dianne Bluestein, if you are able to help.
president@cbjplymouth.org

Please Volunteer to Sponsor an Oneg!

If you would like to honor a special occasion (birthday, anniversary, etc.) in a very special way, please consider sponsoring an Oneg. A beautiful, welcoming Oneg table of challah, fruit, baked goods, or even ice cream sundaes is a sign of our warm hospitality to our congregants, guests, and prospective members.

When you are a member of our congregation, you are asked to step forward once a year to host or sponsor an Oneg Shabbat for the members who attend services in person. Sponsors are asked to contribute $54.00 to cover the cost for the Oneg. We will purchase the foods for the Oneg table, set up and clean up. Click here to sign up for a specific date and pay. If you prefer, you may send a check, payable to CBJ Sisterhood, to Cindy Teles at 31 Birch Avenue, Plymouth, MA 02360.

Hosts are expected to purchase or bake the items for the Oneg and be there in person to help to set up and clean up. The choice of food items is up to you. The Oneg can be as elaborate or as simple as you like.

Please contact our Oneg Coordinator, Trish Garland ((trishrgarland@gmail.com) if you would like to sponsor or host an Oneg. Trish can provide advice about what items are popular, such as fresh fruit, nuts, baked goods (not necessarily homemade), ice cream with toppings, etc. It's a mitzvah!

Congregation Beth Jacob is grateful for all donations that are received. The following donations were recently received:

Yahrzeit/General Fund:

Allan & Judith Sherman - in loving memory of Allan's mother, Ruth Putnam Sherman

General Fund in Support of CBJ's Musical Shabbatot with Rachmiel Klein:

Judith & Allan Sherman

Funding for Rachmiel Klein's Monthly Musical Performances

Rachmiel has been a featured songleader at our Shabbat services over the past several months, adding a new vibrancy and joy to our worship. His fee is partially subsidized by generous donations from a congregant, together with contributions from the Ray & Milly Russo Fund for Music and the Arts and the Rose Sherman Geller Fund for Jewish Family Life. If you have been enjoying the music of Rachmiel Klein at our services, you may wish to contribute to those funds to replenish them.

Tikkun Olam

Thank you to everyone who donated food and toiletry items for our food drive and who volunteered to deliver our collection to Christ Church Parish. This mitzvah will help many of our neighbors who depend on our support.

This food drive was an example of Tikkun Olam in action. Our students had the opportunity to deliver the donations to the food pantry at the church and to learn how this effort affects the lives of members of the Plymouth community to rely on this support to care for their families.

This effort is ongoing. Many families continue to need our support.

Cash Donations: If you wish to make a monetary donation, you may do so online using the CheddarUp payment link below or on our website, or you may send a check to Congregation Beth Jacob, PO Box 3284, Plymouth, MA 02361, Attention: Treasurer. Be sure to note that this is a donation for the Food Bank.

For more information, please contact Sue Moore at uzan@comcast.net.

Recipe for Moroccan Chicken Kebabs

Recipe by Tina Wasserman on the URJ Website

Whether served as part of an assortment of mezes, or small plates, or laid on a bed of couscous as part of a Moroccan meal, kebabs can be found throughout the Middle East and North Africa. This method of cooking and the use of spice demonstrate the recipe's migration westward with the Moors.

Ingredients:

- 1/2 medium onion, diced
- 2 tablespoons lightly-packed chopped fresh mint
- 1/3 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1 large clove garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cumin
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 pound boneless chicken breasts

Directions:

Combine the first 8 ingredients in a 1-quart glass bowl.

Remove the fillet from the chicken breasts, and cut all parts of the chicken into 1/2-inch cubes.

Combine the chicken with the marinade in the bowl and marinate for at least 1/2 hour, but longer is better.

Skewer the chicken on metal skewers or bamboo sticks, and grill for about 6 minutes, basting occasionally with the remaining marinade. Serve as a first course to a Moroccan meal.

Additional Notes

To identify the fillet of the breast for removal, look for the pearlized white membrane running lengthwise through the triangular piece of meat. Pull gently on that piece and it will slide out of its thin membrane pocket. If you don't see the membrane, it might have already been removed before sale.

Although the membrane can be eaten, it is best to remove it before grilling so that the meat won't curl up when the membrane becomes tight and pulls on the delicate chicken breast.
